We are pleased to announce that registration is now open for our Spring Meeting, "Pennsylvania GIS", which will take place on Thursday, June 10th at the Community College of Philadelphia.

The Pennsylvania Mapping and Geographic Information Consortium (PaMAGIC) will give a presentation on the Geospatial Coordination Strategic Plan for Pennsylvania including the current status of proposed legislation creating the State Geospatial Coordinating Council and the Pennsylvania Mapping and Geospatial Technologies Fund.

The City of Philadelphia will demo a new iPhone application which any citizen can use to report an incident or service request to the City's 311 center. They will also give a presentation of their 3D model of the City.

The Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) will provide an overview of their mapping and GIS services.

Our hosts, the Community College of Philadelphia (CCP) will present an overview of their GIS Certificate Program.

The price for our meeting is still ten dollars and includes breakfast, mid-morning snack, and lunch. You can register for the event at our website www.macurisa.org
